PLAY CAST

AL

BUM

The Huntington High School Class of 1966 salutes Judy Feigel, who for five years carried a dream of becoming class valedictorian. Perseverance, determination, and honesty brought her to scholastic achievement and awards in addition to success in the extracurricular activities.

English, mathematics, science, social studies, and Latin were the fields in which Judy chose to reach success. She was an Indiana University Achievement Test Finalist in 1964 and won the Rotary Scholastic award for two successive years. The Junior and Senior Honor Societies and KBF were Judy's other victories. Achievement in social studies enabled her to participate in the local television program, "Communism Looks at Youth."

Huntington basketball fans have enjoyed watching Judy cheer the Vikes to many victories in three years as a cheerleader.

Ball State University is Judy's next dream. Her spirit will be renewed by the challenge of other victories to achieve.

"Nice going, Joel!" is a familiar remark to the ears of Joseph R. Powers. Salutatorian of the 1966 graduating class of Huntington High School. Because of his honest hard work and carefully directed ambition, Joe was able to win this outstanding scholastic honor. It has not been all books and study for Joe, for he is an active participant in many other worthwhile extracurricular activities. Joe was Vice-president of Science Club, a member of Biology Club, Junior and Senior Honor Societies, and KBF.

As one can see, Joe's major interests lie in science and Mathematics. During his four years he majored in Science, mathematics, history, and English. Joe's industrious mind and talents will be put to the utmost challenge as he pursues his goal of chemical engineering at Purdue University this fall.

For all of these achievements and many more, to Joseph R. Powers the class of 1966 says, "Nice going, Joe!"

Seniors, we're watching you!

Stretch, Joe.

Pensive, Rick?

Would you believe--?

Ridem Kiracofe!

Lyle hospitalized?

Sophomores' prized possessions.

Homeroom 305 nominated for the homeroom of the year award! ?

Mama Fisher and her COOKIES?

This couldn't be Tom Miller trying to break IN to the school?

Diana

Huntington College
Is Where To Go!

Where — Many of your friends are now enrolled. During 1965-66 there were 69 Huntington High School graduates attending Huntington College.

Where — You will be known as Miss Kay Landis or Mr. Don Cotton and not IBM Number 39602.

Where — Your Huntington High School teachers Richard Goshorn, Robert Diffenbaugh, Joan Fisher, Lowell Buzzard, Geraldine Miller, Max Fordyce, Dale Ware, Don Betterly, Paul Buzzard, Lois McClure and several others received a substantial portion of their education.

Where — You can get a good education at a minimum expense to your family.

Where — You will find scholarships, student loans and work opportunities for those who qualify.
